The Directors

Doug Shanahan, is the current Head Lacrosse Coach of the Boys Program at Pine Crest School. Coach Shanahan was a member of Team USA 2002 and 2006, the World Games MVP, and he plays professionally in the MLL. In 2001, he was the inaugural winner of the Tewaaron Award, presented to the nation's top college player. Coach Shanahan was All-American at Hofstra University and is nationally recognized as a top lacrosse player. His coaching experience includes college level, high school level as well as instructing all ages at his summer programs in Long Island and elsewhere.

Eileen Pliske, is the current Head Lacrosse Coach of the Girls Program at Pine Crest School. She graduated from Loyola College and has coached lacrosse in South Florida for 10 years. In 2003, she led the Coral Springs Club Lacrosse team to the South Florida Lacrosse Finals. Since beginning her tenure at Pine Crest School in 2006, Coach Eileen has earned 4 District Championships in a row. In 2008 and 2009, Coach Eileen was chosen as Coach of the Year by the Miami Herald and was selected "Coach of the Year" by the South Florida Chapter of US Lacrosse in 2003 and 2009.
